CRÍTICA, BARCELONA, 2010. Rústica. Book Condition: Nuevo. Dust Jacket Condition: Nuevo. 01. Durante veinte años Laurence Rees ha recorrido el mundo entero entrevistando a centenares de supervivientes de la Segunda Guerra Mundial, y ha recogido los testimonios y confesiones de violadores, asesinos en masa e incluso caníbales, a la vez que los de las víctimas que sobrevivieron, o los de quienes lucharon con valor y dignidad. Parte de estos materiales le sirvieron para construir libros tan espléndidos como Auschwitz, pero algunas de las historias más terribles, algunas de las páginas más negras, que no encajaban en ellos, le han seguido inquietando y las recupera hoy para enfrentarse al reto de explicar cómo fue posible que hubiera seres humanos capaces de cometer tales atrocidades. Estas treinta y cinco historias de hombres y mujeres de las más diversas nacionalidades y condiciones, que Ian Kershaw ha calificado como soberbias, inquietantes y aterradoras , componen un libro del que Antony Beevor ha dicho que representa una importante contribución a nuestra comprensión de la segunda guerra mundial . 440 grms. LIBRO.
