She was born with an ability to hear it in every step, word, and action made. While trying to rescue her mate, who has been brainwashed to forget her, her plan becomes complicated. She s taken hostage by the enemy and hears things she shouldn t have. Willing to atone for her past, she risks her life for the safety of her loved ones by refusing to use her true form, knowing the consequences. Her father, a vengeful witch, and trust issues plague her at every turn. With time running out, Audire must put her faith in the enemy and risk it all, or live with the herself for allowing another to die.
