Springer London Ltd, United Kingdom, 2001. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 2000 ed.. 220 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The European Computer Driving Licence (ECDL) is a European-wide qualification that enables you to demonstrate your competence in computer skills. It covers a range of specific knowledge areas and skill sets, broken down into seven modules. Module 7: Information and Communication is divided into two main sections. The first covers basic Web search tasks using a Web browser and search engine tools. The second addresses the use of electronic mail software to send and receive messages, to attach documents, and to organise and manage message folders and directories. This study guide covers all the knowledge areas and skills required to understand and pass Module 7 of the ECDL syllabus. Throughout we have used clear, jargon free, self-paced exercises to provide you with an understanding of all the key elements to prepare you for the ECDL Test.
