Wheatmark, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Walter Bruno Korschek is not a famous politician, a noted journalist, or distinguished political scholar. He is an ordinary American who is disturbed by the continuous erosion of freedom in the United States. This erosion has been caused and encouraged by the American political class. Regardless of party affiliation, the political class consists of career politicians whose only goal is to become elected and then stay elected. They do whatever it takes to remain in office, even if it reduces our individual freedoms as spelled out in the United States Constitution. Some examples of their actions include: Violating our right to privacy through the Patriot Act Increasing the burden of taxation Controlling and managing election processes Turning one group of Americans against another for their own political purposes In Love My Country, Loathe My Government, Korschek lays out a straightforward plan that involves fifty steps needed to restore lost freedom in America. He exposes the myths about government-myths that the political class needs in place to stay in power. Time is running out. The need to act is now before more freedoms are lost.This book sets up a citizen-based action plan to implement the fifty steps at the grassroots level. About the Author Walter Bruno Korschek earned a BS in mathematics from the University of Delaware in 1975 and a MS in statistics from the University of Delaware in 1976. He had a twenty-two-year career with a major telecommunications corporation and is founder and owner of a successful family business.
