Grin Verlag Okt 2012, 2012. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 216x149x20 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Titel. - Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject American Studies - Literature, printed single-sided, grade: -, University of Hamburg, course: African- American Literature, language: English, abstract: First published in 1983, the story of Alice Walker's The Color Purple is set in ruralGeorgia in the 1930's. It is narrated through the letters of Celie, the protagonist, whobegins to write to God in order to tell him about her life, since her step-father sexuallyabused her and told her to never tell anyone but God about it. When Celie starts towrite, she is 14 years old. Through the epistolary style of the novel, the reader gains agood, more personal and subjective impression of Celies mental and physical condition,and also of the situation she is growing up in, as she writes down everything she can nottell anyone else. Also, the fact that Celie writes as she speaks intensifies the impressionthat the reader is in a conversation with her. She is not trying to impress anyone withwhat she writes down, but to deal with what happened to her.In the course of the novel, the reader is introduced to the characters that play a role inher life, as well as the relationships she has with them. Interestingly, she never givesaway the names of male persons like her step-father or husband, but calls them He or Pa or Mr___ . The names of males that are younger than her are mentioned.Celie is exposed to undergoing a major change in her personality and situation, that inthe end lead to her financial, emotional and spiritual independence and freedom.In this exam paper, I want to focus on the indications that make it possible for Celie todevelop...
