Penguin Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, India: A Portrait, Patrick French, Patrick French's "India: A Portrait" tells the story of how India emerged from a turbulent struggle for independence to become a vibrant democracy with one of the fastest-growing economies in the world. India is the biggest democracy on earth, a country of dynamic change, huge divisions and countless identities. Is there any way to discover the 'real' India? In this intimate biography of 1.2 billion people, Patrick French travels all over the country talking to everyone from political leaders to mafia dons, from chained quarry workers to self-made billionaire entrepreneurs, to tell the story of post-independence India as never before. "Patrick French brings one of the globe's most dynamic nations springing to life .he has an encyclopaedic knowledge of the country, sensitivity to its subtler nuances and a wealth of research". ("Sunday Times"). "It's gripping.If you're Indian, reading the book is like learning the history of your country in four days". ("New Indian Express"). "Fizzing with wit, insight and infectious curiosity .a thoroughly enjoyable romp through six momentous decades". ("Wall Street Journal Asia"). "Wide-ranging, clear-sighted, warm-hearted and immensely readable.The human tales that French finds are engrossing". ("Evening Standard"). "A rich colouring of contemporary characters and events, many of them sharply observed at first hand. Crammed with elegant portraits". ("Economist"). Patrick French is the author of "Younghusband: The Last Great Imperial Adventurer", which won the Somerset Maugham Award and the Royal Society of Literature W. H. Heinemann Prize, "Liberty or Death: India's Journey to Independence and Division", which won the "Sunday Times" Young Writer of the Year Award, "Tibet, Tibet: A Personal History of a Lost Land", "The World Is What It Is: The Authorized Biography of V.S. Naipaul", which was shortlisted for the Samuel Johnson Prize...
