Reviews

The most effective publication i at any time go through. This is certainly for all those who statte that there had not been a worthy of looking at. Its been printed in an extremely straightforward way which is merely soon after i finished reading this publication where basically changed me, change the way in my opinion.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fifty-First Annual Report of the Commissioners on Fisheries and Game: For the Year 1916 To His Excellency the Governor and the Honorable Council. The Commissioners on Fisheries and Game respectfully submit their fifty-first annual report. Appointments. During the past year the following changes have been made in the personnel of the Commission: - Mr. Arthur L. Millett of Gloucester was appointed as Commissioner by His Excellency the Governor on February 9, confirmed by the Council on February 16, and duly qualified on Feb. 18, 1916, Dr. George W. Field of Sharon retiring after more than ten years of continuous service as chairman. To this work Mr. Millett brings a long training and intimate experience with the salt-water fisheries, which should place the new Board in closest touch with the commercial fisheries. On February 29 Commissioner William C. Adams of Newtonville was elected chairman of the Board of Commissioners. Commissioner George H. Graham of Springfield was reappointed as Commissioner for a second term of five years on Aug. 3, 1916. Reorganization. Effective business organization must underly the activities of any department, so when we started the reorganization of our department in February (two and a half months after the fiscal year had begun), we aimed to institute desirable changes as rapidly as circumstances would allow. All the details had to be studied out by the commissioners, assisted by an already overtaxed office force which could proceed with the plans only as the routine work would permit. A proper handling of the finances is the first essential, and for this reason it is advisable to state how the money to conduct the department is provided. About the...
