Excerpt: . . . 11 tions to the hearing record, that any answers to written questions provided by the witnesses also be included in the record. Without objection it is so ordered. What I just read functionally means is that this is not a town meeting, it is a congressional hearing. The witnesses that are testi-fying have prepared written statements but anybody else who has written statements if they give them to Congressman Davis or my-self within the next 5 days, they will be submitted into the record. The record entails this. We have a court stenographer here today. I dont know if it takes us a year or year and a half until these things get printed in a booklet form but since these are the only hearings being held by Congress on faith-based, they will be the more or less permanent record of the kind of the history of faith-based. There have been some hearings in Congress and debates on pro-visions in law but there arent hearings looking at what faith-based organizations are actually doing. We are having the debate over discrimination clauses in almost every bill that is coming up right now on the House floor and what makes groups effective but no-body is going to hearings trying to figure out from the groups themselves what makes them effective. We are having the tail wagging the dog right now in that we are trying to get out and hear from the diversity of different groups. We will also be...
