R. 12080 The committee met, pursuant to notice, at 10 a.m., in room 2221, New Senate Office Building, Senator Clinton P.Anderson, presiding. Present: Senators Anderson, Talmadge, Harris, Williams, Carlson, Curtis, and Morton. Senator Anderson. The hearing will come to order. Today, we continue our hearings on the administrations social security bill. Last week, we heard the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and his staff make the case for enlarging the schedule of cash payments under the bill and raising the taxable base and tax rate above the levels provided in the House bill. In addition, the Secretary recommended that the restrictive welfare amendments added by the House bill be deleted. This week, we will be receiving testimony from the interested public. Our first witness today is the Honorable George Aiken, U. S. Senator, from Vermont. Senator Aiken is well-known in this body for work he has performed in furthering social legislation. He...
