Congressional Sales Office, 2001. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)48630614 Subject: Fire management -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 such as incident commanders and logistic section chiefs. Overtime pay is calculated differently for these categories. Non-exempt per-sonnel are compensated for overtime at a rate of one and a half times their normal base pay. Exempt personnel are compensated for overtime with a cap at step one of the Federal General Salary Level 10, which may be below their normal pay. Accordingly, incident commanders, for example, with significant management responsibilities of making life and death decisions and of obligating the Federal Government to over 1 million a day, are paid less than a truck driver working on the same fire. This is inexcusable and makes no sense. Here lies the root of the problem. The pay equity issue has dis-couraged many potential firefighters from advancing from a fire-fighter to a supervisory and management position within the fire organization. Many say, why work in a position...
