It was placed here only ten years after Washington s death. The figures of the cherubim in front of the organ and the brass chandeliers, destined originally for a Canadian convent, were given to the church in 1758 by the master of an English privateer, who captured them from a French ship on the high seas. An ancient Vinegar Bible and the old prayer books are still in use. The silver communion service includes several pieces bearing the royal arms, which were gifts from George II in 1733, at the instance of the royal Governor Belcher. The clock below the rail has been in place since 1746. Beneath the tower are old tombs. In one of them Major Pitcair n was temporarily buried. Some years later, when his monument was erected in Westminster Abbey and his English relatives sent for...
