As a means to this end, the Institute holds biennial Conferences, promotes and co-ordinates research by other agencies, conducts research through its own Secretariat and endeavors to stimulate the mood of inquiry regarding Pacific problems on the part of the public generally. The First Conference The First Conference of the Institute held in 1925 was brought about by the initiative of a small group of men in Honolulu, primarily concerned with their own position as a possible center of conflict in the Pacific and discerning the need of some agency that would promote better understandings between east and west. At first they sought an existing agency to promote conferences and act as...
